London, July 25.—Lloyd-George is on his way to Hythe, whence he will go Tuesday to a conference with Premier Millerand, at Boulogne. It is no secret that at the coming meeting he will endeavor to persuade the French statesman to come to London to take part in the Russo-German conference, to be held the interest of peace within a few weeks in the British capital.

The premier's hurried departure followed rapidly on the heels of Foreign Minister Tchitcherin's message from Moscow accepting the British proposal for a cessation of warfare and, the eventual resumption of trade relations with the Soviet country.

Wilson's Action Resented. But a second matter, also of vast international importance, and directly vital to America, is on the schedule for discussion at this day-long conference in Boulogne. The premier will discuss at length President Wilson's protest over the settlement of the Tschecoslovakia dispute which overrules the Versailles treaty. The president's interference

"After all Tanlac has done for me I sure feel like a different woman," said Mrs. H. G. Cremens, of 21st street and Jefferson avenue, Huntsville.

"I suffered with indigestion and stomach trouble for two years. My appetite left me and I would have to eat every meal I could find hard to swallow and feel miserable for hours. Dizzy spells came on and headaches nearly drove me wild. I was so nervous that I never had a good night's sleep, and a sleep had rheumatism in my left side, lost weight and wasn't able to do anything about the house."

"I took a few doses of Tanlac when I began to improve and my appetite picked up. My strength returned. I gained ten pounds in weight and now I can eat just anything without sign of indigestion. All my ailments have disappeared and I feel as well and as good as ever. I am simply wonderful what Tanlac has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Atlanta exclusively by Jacobs' Pharmacy Co. (adv.)

is plainly rebuked as unjustified and uncalled for.

An official of the foreign office put it this way:

"Czecho-Slovakia, Poland and the Entente agreed to arbitration. President Wilson now interferes with the Entente's action, asking to have another Flume for us to deal with. He should boast rather than knock, and his interference is distinctly a knock."

Foreign Minister Tchitcherin's proposal for a general conference of interested nations is being considered by the Entente, with the exception of the United States. It is intimated that if Millerand fails to approve the suggestion for a meeting of the Entente and Britain will meet the border states' representatives and the Soviet leaders independently.

Both Foreign Minister Storck of Italy, and Foreign Minister Lloyd-George of Great Britain, have exerted much pressure upon Millerand, particularly during the recent Spa conference, but it is reported that Millerand has stiffened his opposition to the proposal since that meeting.

Plan for Recognition.

Downing, however, admits frankly that the plan for recognition of the Soviet government is complete except for the formal announcement of the Entente. The Entente has stated that a committee six months ago the allies were in a position from which they could have dictated to the Soviet Union. Russia is not a nation where it can practically dictate to the Entente. Neither Great Britain nor France is in a position to wage war against Russia, or even to prevent the occupation of Poland by the Soviet Union.

On the other hand, it is pointed out that the Soviet officials have made at this time are more valuable to their cause than if they were to be forced by military success.

It is held, however, that Lenin is playing to the great world-galley, with his audience consisting entirely of working men. If so, his success has been phenomenal.

Clever Trick Turned.

It is admitted frankly that the Soviet government turned a clever trick in accepting as it did the so-called "boundary line" proposed by Lloyd-George, that the Bolshevik advance against Poland be stopped and arrangements begun for an armistice. In answer to this suggestion, the Soviet government immediately accepted the situation as one strongly favoring the chance of a special allied recognition of the Soviet Union.

There are even veiled implications that Lloyd-George may have been responsible for this. He certainly acted on behalf of all the allies when he made his suggestion for an armistice directly to the Soviet government. He had now a position in which he desires to bring pressure to bear upon Millerand that since negotiations have been opened with Russia there is nothing to do but go there with them in order to help Poland.

Why France Opposes.

The objection to recognition of the Soviet regime raised by France has its foundation in the repudiation of foreign borrowings by Lenin and Trotsky. France has advanced large sums to the Bolshevik government and in addition had large holdings in Russia. It seems unlikely that if an arrangement for recognition were to be made upon it, it will have France's support unless assurances are received that Russia will acknowledge her debts.

The peace conference between the Russians and Poles will begin at Baranovitchi, 85 miles southwest of Minsk, on Aug. 20, and the arbitration will start the same day, the Associated Press learned today.

The Lloyd-George boundary line will hold in the north and the actual maritime line in the south on July 29 will be observed.

HOW FRANCE
VIEWS SITUATION.

Paris, July 26.—The proposal by the Russian-Soviet government for a conference in London, with all the allies as reported in last night's dispatches, will be the subject of an exchange of views between France and Great Britain.

The Soviet government has stated the allied demand for an armistice, with Poland as a pretext for a return to the original division of power, for official recognition of the Moscow government and political circles in Paris regard the maneuver as a skilful one which has placed some of the allies, particularly France, in a delicate position.

France has not ceased to consider the proposal, and a firm decision has not been reached.

It has resulted all action with reference to Russia that might even remotely be considered as recognition.

It is pointed out that Premier Lloyd-George speaks for all the allies. However, when he communicated with the Soviet authorities, demanding that they stop the forward movement on the Polish frontier and asking them to arrange an armistice to be followed by a conference of delegates from all the countries bordering on Russia.

This is admitted now for the first time, but it is believed that France may be forced into a position where she will be brought to recognize the Soviets, but it is believed that the will do so only after due guarantees are given that the Russian foreign debt will be paid.

country were asked to aid in the search after Patrolman Leo Trumbull of the Detroit police department had failed to identify a man giving the name of Roy Milen and held by Chicago authorities pending investigation, as Leroy.

That jealousy and revenge played a part in the supposed murder is the reported contention of Alman A. Tatum, now in Birmingham, Ala., and who told police there he knew Mrs. Leroy intimately in Detroit several months ago. Tatum's name was written on the trunk that contained the murdered woman's body, that Leroy may have killed his wife that Leroy may have killed his wife through jealousy when he learned that she had been in Tatum's company and that Tatum's name was used on the trunk with revenge as the motive.

A Detroit detective, left today for Birmingham to bring Tatum to this city, if possible, in an effort to throw light on Leroy's whereabouts.

A second trunk believed to have been sent to New York thought to contain the vital organs of the murdered woman, is being sought.

Positive Identification.

Positive identification of the dead woman was established, the police say, by Patrolman and Mrs. Trumbull and others who recognized clothing found in the trunk with the body as having belonged to Mrs. Leroy. A sweater, which Mrs. Trumbull once had borrowed was among the clothing.

Police investigation today indicated that Mrs. Leroy had been married previously to her marriage to Leroy. According to information in the hands of the police, she was the divorced wife of a southern pugilist named Jackson. Her maiden name is said to have been Katherina Dixon and the home was in Starkville, Mississippi.

Leroy's description, as sent to police departments in all large cities, follows: Aged 23 or 24, height 5 feet 10 1/4 inches, weight 145 pounds, smooth face, swarthy complexion, jet black hair, combed straight back; scar on left leg, teeth good, even.

When last seen Leroy wore a dark green coat, green soft hat, silk shirt, bow tie, tan oxfords.

Feared for His Life.

Mrs. Leroy had planned several times to leave her husband, Mrs. Trumbull told the police today, but was deterred by the fear that Leroy might use violence. On one occasion, Mrs. Trumbull said, Mrs. Leroy told her her husband had brought home a dagger.

"I would leave him tomorrow, but I am afraid he would kill me," Mrs. Trumbull said the woman told her.

Several days later, the two women were on a shopping tour when, according to Mrs. Trumbull, Mrs. Leroy bought a small quantity of chloroform, and she had heard that Mrs. Leroy attempted to take her life that night.

Mrs. Trumbull will be sent to New York to identify the body if it is found it cannot be returned here. Police Commissioner Innes announced tonight.

NOT-EUGENE LEROY.

Chicago, July 26.—Efforts to connect Roy Milen, a former army aviator, with the notorious Detroit trunk murderer failed today when Patrolman Leo Trumbull, of the Detroit police department, was unable to identify Milen as the missing "Eugene" Leroy.

Ten prisoners, including Milen, were lined up for Patrolman Trumbull's inspection. He walked from one end of the line to the other, scanning the faces of the men closely. Then he announced that "Eugene" was not in the line.

Patrolman Trumbull was personally acquainted with the missing Leroy and his wife, as they lived in the same neighborhood in Detroit. He is shorter than Leroy. Trumbull said, and his features are more pointed.

Milien, who was arrested in a hotel here last night, was released.

Coolidges Ready For 'Coming Out' Party at Home

Northampton, Mass., July 26.—Governor Calvin Coolidge sat on the front steps of his little white frame home surveying the surroundings. The lawn was freshly cut. As a matter of fact, he had put the finishing touches on that himself.

For all about the town of Northampton were flags and bunting, and the smell of frying doughnuts. It was the 11-year-old curiosity of Calvin of a good smell, and Coolidge smiled with the information that these were in honor of his father.

There were further honors for him in the form of the governor's wife, the governor's son, Calvin Jr., and himself. By the "party" he meant Mrs. Coolidge, their son, Calvin Jr., and himself. By the "party" he meant Mrs. Coolidge, their son, Calvin Jr., and himself.

Once Defendant Young Lawyer.

Twenty-five years ago, Coolidge was a diffident young lawyer in these parts, hardly qualified at the time for the road that leads to the political heights at Washington. Today he was still the quiet, self-effacing man of those days, but with a quickened interest in the politics of the day.

Behind his solemn gray eyes, and the yanks twang of his conversation, there was an air of the politics of the day.

His mind was not on his speech, however, on the eve of his address of acceptance, which is to formally launch him upon his campaign for the vice presidency. Rather, it was on "It's going to be a big party," he said. "It will be a job to feed 125 people in this little house. They've even put a table in my bedroom so as to make more room."

U. S. Revenue Agents Accused of Fighting Suffrage Amendment

Washington, July 26.—(Special) Charges that internal revenue agents in North Carolina have been conducting an intensive campaign against ratification of the suffrage amendment by the coming session of the general assembly in that state have been filed with Commissioner of Internal Revenue William Williams, it is known today.

Just how many agents are under fire, or whether the collector of the North Carolina district is involved, could not be learned from the office of Commissioner Williams.

The political activity of these federal officeholders in the recent gubernatorial contest has been under fire, but no consideration of complaint, which have now assumed the proportion of charges, was not given until it became known that the agents were fighting the administration program of having a democratic state ratify the Anthony amendment.

Manila, July 26.—Thousands were rendered homeless by a typhoon, which, accompanied by torrential rains, swept the island of Luzon during the past ten days or two weeks, causing tremendous damage. The village of San Joaquin, Luzon, was broken, flooding thousands of acres of rice and sugar lands and carrying off hundreds of small houses. Loss of life was reported small.

AMUSEMENTS

B. F. Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Lyric.)

It's an old, old trick, the spectacle of a negro riding a white horse. But this is the first time it's been done in "The New Blacksmith," a feature act at Keith's Lyric theater the first half of this week, split the crowd, the laughs being as effective as many laughs as it is good for one to induce in.

Mine Jewel's "Circus Day in Toyland" is another feature of the show that is unusual; a mannikin act in which the joy performers seem almost human. There's a big question that brought a storm of applause.

Julia Edwards opens the show with a brand-new novelty in which she and a mannikin act in the winning type, as a singer and a clever comedienne. Miss Edwards has a line of patter that is irreverent, but she is a good actress, and reveals thanks to her costume.

Riley, Sweets and Claire, two boys and a girl, are sure to win over a crowd of young people with a nifty bit of dancing thrown in for good measure. Weber, Taylor and Sweets billed as "three acts of song," as well.

Entertainment due to the fact that none of them was able to display a real singing voice.

Entertainment should be unusually interesting in the Pathé Review which shows "slow" pictures of water nymphs in action.

Loew Vaudeville.

(At the Grand.)

Five all-star acts of superior variety, including a dual moment throughout their performance and a thrilling feature play.

And the offering at Loew's Grand is a "big one," as well.

The Grand is one of the best seats in Atlanta in weeks.

A decided and distinctive can be given by Mordecai Toy Snap, which proved a treat for all from two to ninety. Francis and Fox delighted the audience with their "comedy" and "other" acts, while "Spivens' Corner" proved to be a hilarious rural episode enacted by a company of five well-known players. Stories and chaffing are the ticket offered by "The Little Big Girls," and the bill is closed with a startling exposition of physical art by Mollo and Herman.

The "Mollo" act is a spectacular story of Bohemia and Egyptian mysticism, portrayed by Sessue Hayakawa, the well-known actress. The "Herman" act is a dramatic rendering of the leading feminine roles is played by Rhea Mitchell, an Atlanta screen favorite. The story is that of a Hindu woman whose manner of acting material for his stories bring him many exciting adventures.

"Man and His Woman."

"Man and His Woman," in which Herbert Rawlinson stars at the Tudor this week, is a powerful and convincing photoplay. Its story and also its direction is excellent. Herbert Rawlinson shows a decided improvement, which is a sympathetic one from start to finish.

Ray McAvoy, who supports Mr. Rawlinson, also leaves a most interesting impression.

The story of the play is a gripping one depicting the weakness of a strong man when he is down, the power of one woman over another, and the importance of a woman's purity. In "Man and His Woman," one woman's goodness built up what the other's had destroyed. A good action in the story of the picture is the photography, the interior effects showing many lavish settings and the outdoor scenes being decidedly impressive.

THE CONSTITUTION, ATLANTA, GA., TUESDAY, JULY 27, 1920.

Mr. Mix plays the part of a devil-may-care artist, who will be remembered as a popular character in the summer of 1919. A few weeks ago plays the leading role in the end of his second year, with "The Devil's Reward" and "The Man in the Moon." As a added feature of the program, there is an excellent comedy, entitled "He Laughs Last."

"The City of Musk."

(At the Criterion.)

"The City of Musk" is an adaptation of George Barr McCutcheon's popular novel of the same name, which has been shown at the Criterion at least twice this season. There's no more that is good in this picture, that's a must. It's a good picture, but it's not good.

It is a romantic story dealing with a little girl who has a secret life.

What is a pneumatic truck
tire expected to do

YOU hear a good deal of discussion nowadays over the future of pneumatics in motor truck transportation.

More truck owners would be able to approach this question intelligently, perhaps, if the facts about pneumatic truck tires were only a little better known.

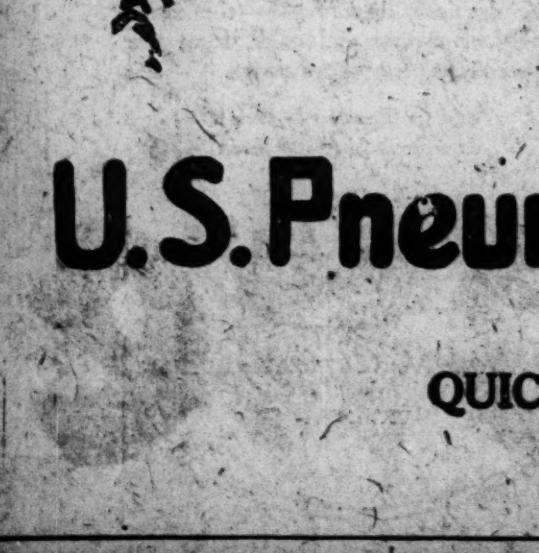

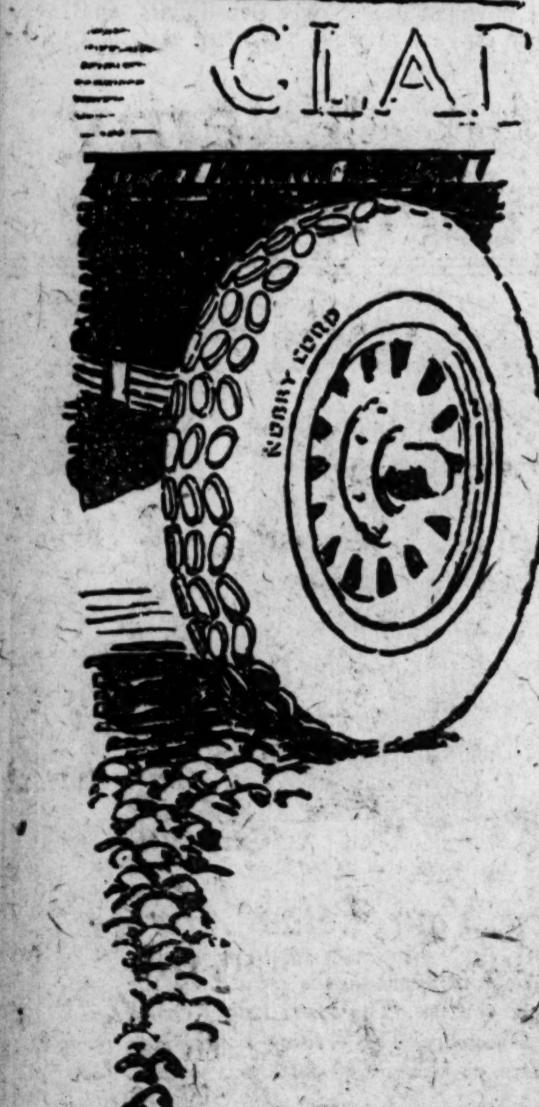

The first pneumatic truck tire created by anyone was given to the public by The United States Rubber Company in 1911, and the U. S. Nobby Cord is today first among pneumatic truck tires.

Designed, built and sold to meet the needs of motor truck owners everywhere—and for no other purpose.

If you are interested in pneumatic truck tires come in and let us give you a few more facts. We believe you will be interested in what we have to tell you.

You Will Not Be Able to Purchase Furs as Cheaply in the Fall as We Offer Them Now

This is a fact. Certain conditions in the Fur Trade make it assured that the Furs for Fall will be scarce and high in price. We have investigated conditions thoroughly and we believe that the foregoing statements are absolute facts.

The selection of Furs we have on hand at the present time and which we are offering at prices we believe to be a THIRD and more than a THIRD less than the prices which will prevail this Fall were made up before the development of the present difficulties in the Fur Trade. They represent the very BEST to be had in Furs—pelts that have been selected with care and developed with the utmost skill. There are Pieces for the Neck, the Scarf, the Stole; there are Coats, the very finest we have seen, Squirrel, Seal, Mole and Mink, trimmed with contrasting Furs, styled to conform to the dictates of Fashion for this particular season. Soft, perfectly seasoned pelts with that certainty of QUALITY apparent to the touch and to the eye. You can not possibly go wrong in the purchase of a FUR PIECE NOW. We are certain that you will save money, and, too, we believe that selections are a good deal more complete at the present time than they will be again this season.

Every Registered Woman Urged to Vote Tomorrow

By IRMA DOOLY.

The two thousand and more women who have registered to vote in the local election of July 28th will be a significant factor in the election and a potent force of interest centers in the way these women will vote.

Many of them have attended the regular meetings of their local clubs, and many of these have been earnest students of the committees of the woman's democratic organization of Georgia, and the citizenship committees of the Georgia federation of women's clubs.

Women interested in the Wednesday election are interesting them-selves in the campaign, and are getting every woman who registered to go out and back up the registration by voting and the other is urging others to make the same correction, for a ticket is not made out correctly will be thrown out, and that woman's vote will be lost.

Let the women continue this good record in all the wards.

In addition to nominating a mayor for the Atlanta Club Wednesday will select nine administrative officials, two members of the board of education, three aldermen, and thirteen councilmen.

All the candidates, with the exception of those running for coun-cilmans, are to be voted on from the 10th to the 12th of July.

A candidate for councilman will run for election only in the ward in which he resides.

There are three aldermanic contests, these being in the second ward, the sixth ward, and the ninth ward.

There is one contest for the position of school commissioner, the fourth ward, the fifth and eighth wards, where R. B. Trouton is候

running for election by Col.

Hutchison. There is no opposition in the second district, composed of the second and the ninth wards.

Upon these, candidates and subjects will call attention to the fact that every woman who has registered should live up to the citizenship offered to her and vote in this election.

To properly vote a ballot, scratch

out with a pen or pencil the names

wards, and leave unmarked the polling to its introduction. He said in framing the bill, he drew largely from the Illinois and Ohio laws, the classification of securities into four classes being taken from the Illinois law, and the chief administrative features from the Ohio act. The latter, he said, was one of the great reconstructive measures of the Illinois and Ohio laws, and, while it might appear to be drastic in some respects, it had been fought through all the courts and sustained. The court of the United States in an opinion rendered in the Hall v. Geiger case by Justice McKenna,

Criticism of Bill.
The framers of the bill, criticism which had been made of the bill was that in providing for the creation of a single securities commission, it placed too much authority in the hands of one man. The suggestion had been made, he said, by former Senator J. S. Yeoman of Dawson, that the single commission be replaced by a commission of three to be composed of the secretary of state, the attorney general and the commissioners of commerce and labor, which commission should have the authority to appoint a chief examiner who should make investigations or examinations and present his findings to it. Mr. Conner agreed that this was a valid criticism, and said that most of the points in the blue sky bill had been met by the commission provided for a commission made up of three or more state commissioners. This suggestion was later accepted.

Mr. Conner, of The Constitution, who drew the bill, at the suggestion of Secretary of State McLendon, explained briefly the chief features of the measure and the reasons immediately following its introduction which had been made of the bill was that the most pointed criticism which had been made, he said, by former Senator J. S. Yeoman of Dawson, that the single commission be replaced by a commission of three to be composed of the secretary of state, the attorney general and the commissioners of commerce and labor, which commission should have the authority to appoint a chief examiner who should make investigations or examinations and present his findings to it. Mr. Conner agreed that this was a valid criticism, and said that most of the points in the blue sky bill had been met by the commission provided for a commission made up of three or more state commissioners. This suggestion was later accepted.

Mr. Conner took exception to the fact that the stock exchanges were excepted from the operation of the law. Mr. Ethridge suggested that the reason for this was, which he admitted were many, could better be found in the amendment of the proposed law than in adopting the white act or that of any other western state.

Secretary McLendon made a statement in which he detailed the difficulties of the law and urged the necessity of the passage of a new bill that placed greater power in the hands of the commission. He defended the original objection to the proposed law was that it placed too much power in the hands of one man and that the single commissioner should be replaced by a board.

Appeal for Bill.
Representatives of the Atlanta Ad Men's club and of the Georgia Bankers Association, in addition to Senator-elect Jim Weaver of Carroll county, who has greatly interested himself in a new "blue sky" bill, appealed to advocates of the measure. H. G. Odell, a banker, an officer of the Georgia Bankers' association, who appeared as their representative, after reading the bill, said that it was a good measure, to be a good, strong measure, meeting the requirements of the situation. He said that the bankers were in favor of the bill, and that passage of a bill that would give protection against the promoters of "speculative" stocks of dubious character.

George S. Lewman said that he represented the vigilance committee of the Ad Men's club and that he was interested in the passage of such a protective measure as the one contemplated. He added, also, that the club was in favor of the bill to protect the public against fraudulent advertising which had been introduced in the house.

The hearing, which followed the conclusion of the hearing, took the bill under consideration and is expected to report a substitute, embodying the chief features of the bill as already indicated to the main committee at its meeting at the Kimball house Tuesday night. The same bill, introduced by Senator Senator Dorris, will probably be up for passage in the senate this week as the author has asked that be done. It is probable that the house bill will be offered as a substitute when the measure comes up in the senate.

The bill provided that all liquor confiscated under the prohibition law should be given over to the sheriff to the ordinary and destruction on public sale days in the presence of a committee of reputable citizens appointed for the purpose. Senator Pittman of the forty-second, and Smith of the seventh, speaking in favor of the measure, said that they had no personal objection to the bill, but that they thought the features were entirely too drastic and that it was unfair in many of its provisions.

Mr. Chambers took exception to the fact that the stock exchanges were excepted from the operation of the law.

Mr. Conner agreed that this was a valid criticism, and said that most of the points in the blue sky bill had been met by the commission provided for a commission made up of three or more state commissioners. This suggestion was later accepted.

Mr. Conner, of The Constitution, who drew the bill, at the suggestion of Secretary of State McLendon, explained briefly the chief features of the measure and the reasons im-

On motion of Representative J. H. S. Strozier and McLeod.

Mr. Strozier of Bibb, had moved to report the bill unfavorably, a motion which was carried.

The vote of the committee was equally divided between the original motion and the substitute, requiring Chatham Stewart's vote to put the bill in the hands of the subcommittee.

We believe that card record equipment is important. We believe card systems are important. Yet far more important than either is the L. B. Idea—the L. B. know-how which sees to it that the customer gets exactly the kind of system and equipment which his particular business demands.

Right there you have the real reason why Library Bureau is today the acknowledged leader in its field. Practically everything worth while in card systems has been originated or improved by Library Bureau.

Whenever you think of a card ledger, a stock record, a sales record—or any other kind of a card system—think of Library Bureau.

KILLING A GOOD LAW.

Granting the best of motives to all concerned, the effect of the resolution which comes up before the house tomorrow cannot fail to be highly destructive of the splendid and efficient highway program which was passed last session.

Under this program the state highway board has entered upon agreements and contracts with the federal government and 106 Georgia counties which involve a combined investment of federal, country, and state funds exceeding $9,000,000.

More than $5,000,000 of this is now under construction and the remainder is ready for early contract.
It represents substantial improvements on a large number of bridges and on a thousand miles of the state system of roads.

This is a fine record. The crop is planted and is rapidly growing.
Uncle Sam has this year paid in more than one million dollars and will pay $6,000,000 more to cultivate and harvest it.

Why try to plow up more than half of this crop of 37 large concrete bridges, of 200 miles of paved road, and of 900 miles now being re-located, graded, provided with permanent culverts and bridges
preparatory to hard surface paving?

Why jeopardize the intelligent and harmonious agreement between the state board and the office of public roads of the federal government involving for 1920 alone $2,700,000 of federal funds and an equal amount of voluntary county funds?

Why not at least let the existing crop reach maturity and then judge whether the present law is yielding the desired fruits?

The present state highway law
was carefully studied, widely debated and almost unanimously approved by public meetings, by the association of county commissioners,
by state wide automobile associations, by individual car owners, and dealers, during 1919. The state and county press were a unit in its support, and likewise the budget committee of the general assembly.

The proposals were definite, to wit: The state shall, from the increased motor vehicle licenses,
build and pave as rapidly as possible 4,800 miles of connected state roads joining the county seats of each county. Two state roads in each county must be built before a third road is built in any county.

At least 70 per cent of the funds must be used for paving. The congressional district was made the unit for annual use of the funds
and for simultaneous construction on the basis of the state road mileage in each district.

And the underlying promises to the motor vehicle owners, who alone pay the taxes, were equally definite, to wit: (1) The state pledges itself to build and pave
at least 150 to 200 miles of paved roads each year without money.

We see no sense in wasting nearly $2,000,000 of our money under the most intelligent
guidance of experienced road
engineers and in accord with the best experience of other states in securing permanent results. (2)

It will not waste the money in drift-
lets or on methods which can never
yield anything better than dirt
roads. (4) The state recognizes the
immediate generosity of the stronger
communities in contributing
their money for the purpose of securing state wide transportation
into all the less well developed sections of the state and solemnly
promises to meet that generosity by
using that money wisely and im-
pariably without regard to county

lines but solely in the interest of
most rapidly building the magnificent network of continuous highways, reaching every county seat
and market point and providing a
maximum farmers' outlet to paved
roads for the entire state.

This legislation was lengthily and carefully considered by the general assembly. The senate, with great clarity of vision, passed not only the immediate highway and motor vehicle acts but also the constitutional amendments proposed whereby state bonds might be issued later to support this splendid constructive movement.

The house was not so united. A minority, by insisting on the local distribution of the anticipated income, nullified the broad purpose of building a state system of connected highways until state bonds would be issued. This element was successful in placing a confused provision for county distribution of funds into the motor vehicle act, the effect of which was to leave the highway board without any means of support at all.

By approving the highway bill last year, the governor removed this nullifying obstacle. But for this action the highway department
could not have been organized.

This was done August 18, 1919.

The attorney general ruled that the highway act was controlling. The whole state was so notified. The board called a meeting of all the county commissioners in October and specifically explained the situation. Not a single word of objection or protest was heard until the meeting of the legislature in June.

But now the same issue is raised by the pending resolution.

A mandamus suit is brought against the board which would not exist if that law had taken effect.

The men who led the fight for sound constructive measures last year are held silent by claims of a gentleman's agreement on this new effort to secure county distribution. Every argument of distrust and selfish appeal is made to break down what has thus far proven a business-like charter for actually building a system of state roads.

Every element of sound state policy or reasonable business judgment is ignored by the resolution. It asks that the $1,800,000 collected from the automobile owners of Georgia be divided into 155 driblets and that the state board shall find 155 contractors to accept these wasteful and disconnected contractions.

Imagine any business man with $1,800,000, 70 per cent of which must be used to build paved roads,
trying to let 155 contracts of $8,400
each in 155 different places in the state. Imagine the overhead waste and the excessive prices demanded
by the contractors.

The resolution takes no account of the $2,700,000 of federal money
for 1920, and of the specific terms upon which that money can be used in Georgia, or of how the joint use of state, county, and federal money is affected by the limitation proposed.

It fails to realize that at least $4,000,000 of such agreements satisfactory to Washington must be forthwith set aside in order that the impracticable demand for country distribution shall immediately proceed.

The resolution as now drawn still leaves the state highway board as an uncertain and formless attachment to the office of the secretary of state under his direct financial control as to any funds for its support, and with a vote over every financial act of the board.

It would be far better to abolish the state highway board to condemn it to the wasteful and impractical duties called for.

The authors of the resolution threaten the friends of highway progress that unless this $1,800,000 is distributed to the counties, the state road bond issue will be jeopardized.

The people of Georgia are not carried around in the pockets of politicians, large or small. They are in earnest about this road program. They can readily answer
like this:

"We want no politics in this road-building effort. We care nothing how you are playing your personal cards. We are satisfied that the present law and the present board can at least build from 150 to 200 miles of paved road each year without money. We see no sense in wasting nearly $2,000,000 of our money under the most intelligent
guidance of experienced road
engineers and in accord with the
best experience of other states in
securing permanent results. (3)

It will not waste the money in drift-
lets or on methods which can never
yield anything better than dirt
roads. (4) The state recognizes the
immediate generosity of the stronger
communities in contributing
their money for the purpose of se-
curing state wide transportation
into all the less well developed sections of the state and solemnly
promises to meet that generosity by
using that money wisely and im-
pariably without regard to county

lines but solely in the interest of
most rapidly building the magnifi-
cent network of continuous high-
ways, reaching every county seat
and market point and providing a
maximum farmers' outlet to paved
roads for the entire state."

During the past six months the present board has built up a fine organization of trained engineers. It has struggled against the most abnormal conditions of transportation,
shortage of material and labor and high prices. It shows specific constructive results to a value of more than $2,600,000 on splendid bridges, on 40 miles of completed paved road and on several hundred miles of other roads preparatory to paving. It has advantageously placed under contract more than $7,000,000 of federal, county, and state funds. Much of this was delayed by the war and subject to cancellation at Washington by time limit provisions.

Active construction is in progress in every part of the state. All who have had contact with the department have been impressed by the efficiency, soundness, and fair-minded methods it embodies.

To disrupt that organization, to confuse, tangle and annul its far-reaching plans, to break down the confidence which it has won from the federal authorities and the people at home is an unthinkable procedure. Such loss would set back road progress for years, and would bankrupt more than one county and many contractors.

To do this simply for the sake of going back to a county system of road building would be a reflection upon the good sense of a general assembly which last year made a record for broad constructive legislation unequalled in the annals of the state.

Why tear up one of the very best parts of this record? Why multilant a highway law which is recognized by the federal authorities and by all students of such movements as one of the simplest, fairest, and most effective laws existent in any state?

Having raised the auto taxes, apparently, it is now sought to abandon the idea of state roads and resume the local county system.

Phrases such as "until state bonds are issued" may skillfully conceal a real intention to oppose such bonds as long as possible. Certainly an honest advocate of state wide roads would not wish to waste $2, 000,000 and tear down $3,000,000 of contracts and cripple an effective organization on the ultimatum of refusal to vote for state road bonds.

Imagine any business man with $1,800,000, 70 per cent of which
must be used to build paved roads,
trying to let 155 contracts of $8,400

BAILEY STAYS HIGH IN TEXAS PRIMARY

Dallas, Texas, July 24.—Additional returns received tonight from remote districts by the Texas election bureau, an organization formed by Texas editors for the gathering of election returns from Saturday's democratic primary, failed to alter materially the lead Joseph W. Bailey, former United States senator from Texas, has held over his nearest opponent, Pat M. Neff, for the gubernatorial nomination.

With practically two-thirds of the estimated total votes tabulated, the race stood: Bailey 11,673, Neff 11,498. Robert E. Thompson, 7,031, Ben F. Looney 5,917.

R. M. Dudley, campaign manager for Thompson, in a telegram to Luther Nickels, Bailey's campaign manager, declared that he would support Bailey in the run-off election to be held August 28.

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man, Tells the Treachery of Calomel.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury, quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the nerves and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large article of Liver-Tone. Liver-Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is a natural product that liver-tones out stirring you up inside, and cannot salivate.

Don't take calomel! It cannot be treated by any man I know, but a wildcat. Take Dodson's Liver-Tone which strengthens you right up and makes you feel fine. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe—(adv.)

Diamonds Are Constantly Enhancing
In Value

For many reasons diamonds are increasing in value. The chief factor in causing diamonds to advance in price every year is because the demand far exceeds the supply.

Fifty people now want and buy diamonds where one would buy twenty years ago. Increased insurance, larger freight rates and government taxes have caused an advance already in the primary markets.

Now is a good time to purchase diamonds. Write for booklet, "Facts About Diamonds," and twenty-fifth annual catalogue.

ple. There is little difference between the methods of the hydroelectric and the methods of the hydroelectric and the methods of the hydroelectric in Russia, and the results will be the same. The carrying out of the scheme in the province of Ontario is due, moreover, only to one man, Sir Adam Beck. He has had the force and the ability to carry on the progress with unusual skill and efficiency, and skill and political scheming of this nature usually are fortunate enough to succeed. He has been able to keep the hydro-electric power commission out of politics. But his influence can only be temporary.

To sum up, the scheme in Ontario is due, moreover, only to one man, Sir Adam Beck. He has had the force and the ability to carry on the progress with unusual skill and efficiency, and skill and political scheming of this nature usually are fortunate enough to succeed. He has been able to keep the hydro-electric power commission out of politics. But his influence can only be temporary.

probably remain there longer; the schools and the sewers are breaking down.

Effect on Local Company.

"I have said nothing of the effect of the proposed legislation on the Georgia Railway and Power company, which is incidentally due to the situation which I have tried to describe. But it is true that if the constitutional amendments described in the proposed legislation are adopted, the Georgia Railway and Power company can never develop another horsepower of water power in the state of Georgia which is sufficient. No one would put capital into an enterprise the property of which was subjected by the constitution of the state to the power of condemnation either by the state itself or by any county or any municipality in the state. Any city can now get authority to go into the public utility business and can ignore laws and may either buy the existing properties or build new.

This is the true effect of the proposed legislation.

"Why should an enterprise, built up by a lifetime of hard work and millions of capital, be subject to ruin by a single vote of a legislature?

"No right thinking citizen, so far as his influence goes, will approve of the state of Georgia going into the business of owning and operating public utilities. At least that is my judgment. So no water power would be developed under the proposed legislation, and the proposed legislation is now in effect.

"The result, therefore, of the passing of the proposed legislation would be to destroy the only agencies which are now developing water power in the state. Here is another example of how the good citizens of Atlanta are letting their true interest go by default, sleeping while the bad men in power are in the leadership of the three whom I have named, Key, Eagan and Jackson.

"They worked this same scheme in the legislature last year, and a year ago. Similar bills were proposed in the legislature, and in the senate and house committee to get rid of the Georgia Railway and Power Company. The bills last year did not seek to amend the constitution of the state, but merely relied upon the enactment of state laws by the legislature. The bills this year, due to the continued agitation last year and this year are attracting attention throughout the country. The mere fact that any state, in the name of being willing to propose such wild legislation will injure the state and the counties and municipalities.

Extent of Property.

"The properties of the Georgia Railway and Power Company extend all over the northern part of the state of Georgia and along the South Carolina shore of the boundary rivers. It includes five developed hydroelectric stations and four steam stations, with an installed capacity of 160,000 horsepower and an output of 350,000,000 horsepower. It has 1,000 miles of high tension electric transmission lines, numbers of substations, miles upon miles of low tension distribution systems, 2,000 miles of electric railroads, 388 passenger cars, a gas manufacturing plant and distributing system, with an output of 1,400,000 cubic feet of gas per annum, and a steam heating system. It serves 43 municipalities, 24 counties, has 45,000 stockholders, 25,000 employees and 250,000 passengers per annum. The name of every outstanding security of the company, both bonds and stock, has been and is held by the constituted official authority of the state. The company has been engaged exclusively in and has devoted its every resource to the public welfare. Investors in the company's securities have willingly postponed present profit or return on their investment in the interests of improving the property and developing the service for the benefit of the public. Atlanta has been peculiarly fortunate in this attitude of the part of the management of the company.

"If the power output which was required to serve its customers, and which was actually furnished to its customers by the Georgia Railway and Power company by water power

in 1919 had been generated by steam, it would have required approximately 650,000 tons of coal in one year. At the present rate of use, the coal would cost $5,000,000.

The Tugalo development, in which is half completed, will add 100,000 tons of coal which, at today's market price, would cost $4,000,000. If the state of Georgia, or any county

or any municipality should undertake under the proposed scheme as a new proposition to develop, it would be compelled to act like a water power company to furnish the funds with which to construct water power

in the state, and it is fair to assume that it will not be sufficient to maintain the credit of the company so that its promise to repay will be regarded good when it comes to settling.

Small Misleading Group.

"The thought in my mind, which I have tried to point out, is that the good citizens of Atlanta, and Atlanta is mainly composed of good citizens, are permitting a small group which can be counted on one hand to mislead the public along lines which mean the destruction of Atlanta. This is the only way to do it. The material and vital to the city's progress and welfare. This statement is corroborated by almost every newspaper in the country which contain one continuous exposure or account of the deplorable conditions existing in Atlanta.

"These figures are mentioned to show that the Georgia Railway and Power company has already accomplished, and what it means to Atlanta and to the territory it serves.

"The arteries of an organism cannot be destroyed without destroying the organism itself.

series of steps in raising rates in

Vols Rally in Ninth Fails To Overcome Cracker Lead; Smith Returns to Line-up

By CLIFF WHEATLEY.

Nashville, Tenn., July 26.—(Special)—Touching up the Vol's record for a dozen hits, taking advantage of half a dozen Vol misplays and getting the best end of what apparently was a bad game from the Cracker bats, the Vols won their third game of the series in the Dell Monday by a score of 5-4.

In the ninth inning rally cooked up by the Vols, they came within a hair's breath of knotting the count.

In the opener, Red Wingo fired a shot down the first-base line that looked foul by a margin of several inches, but Bulldog Williams called foul, and the Vols had a free run in the same inning, following.

Johnson called Sammy Mayer safe in the fourth when it looked as if the Vols had blown it out after making a pretty stop and sending it back.

It would have been the final out of the round, but Kauffman scored on the play.

Johnson was in First.

Jack Martin opened for the Cracker bats in the first inning.

Smith singled to left field. High was thrown out by Kauffman. Wingo hit single down the first-base line and, Martin, a pop, Kauffman drove it into a double play, Elam to Kauffman to Brown.

In the second, Damrau singled.

Elam threw out, but second, Newell to Kauffman, when he attempted to stretch his blow into a double.

Mayer and Powell made initial hits.

YANKS FACE HARD ROAD TRIP IN WEST

BY HARRY BUTH.
(Copyright, 1920, by United News.)

New York, July 26.—We started west tonight with a fine drumming snarling under our hides and with the knowledge that our own laxness is responsible for the fact that we lost some ground to the Cleveland club in our last game at home.

I didn't measure the year's home games already because you don't hit at all. I walked because I fail to see any sense in stretching for bad hits when the best I would get would be a fielder's choice, a fielder's error, or maybe a pop fly.

I want to hit fifty home runs this year, and I really believe my total will be greater than that. I do believe this is a high estimate, although a hitting slump may deprive me of that goal. I have, however, been hitting them out at the rate of about twelve a game, which means sixty for the year. The law of averages, I guess, governs that.

The great many ball players and followers of the game know that the short right field stand in New York will be responsible in the main if I put the sixty circuit bombs.

The distance is about 350 feet in New York is slightly shorter than in the average park, yet it is interesting to note that of the thirty-five home runs I have already hit, four have been shot into the lower right field grandstand. I hit eight home runs before even the first game went in. And after a walk in the upper right field grandstand in New York or into the right field bleachers here is a home run in any man's ballpark, I don't care where it is shot.

I am meeting the ball better than I did last year and I have greater confidence in my ability. I was only last night in the summertime. That accounts for the fact that, although I was cracking out a lot of long distance hits, my average wasn't so terrible.

We are facing the hardest spot of the season so far in our trip into the west. We open with St. Louis, a team that has given us some trouble this year. And on the way back the Yankees will be called upon to bat both Cleveland and Chicago, the latter being the last team we were unable to shake to the bottom.

Chicago we do not fear so greatly. We are confident we can hit the Sox.

Something else I have to give credit where credit is due. Although we beat the life out of Cleveland on the road, we did not do so on our grounds, we do not forget that they hammered the daylight out of our best flingers when we were last in Cleveland.

The coming series will tell a lot about who is going to win the pennant.

We are to play Cleveland on Saturday night, and we will be asked to go west again during the latter part of September.

Americans Rank Third in Olympic Running Deer Shoot

Antwerp, July 26.—The American team finished third in the Olympic running deer competition at the Antwerp games. The total score for the four entries, and the scores were:

Norway 178, Finland 159; America 158, Sweden 153, out of a possible 260.

The afternoon match, in which each man had ten shots at a deer 100 yards away, was won by K. K. Karst, also of Gordon, and Bailey held the light heavyweight title of the games.

Eddie Leonard, a cousin of Benny, and Young Sullivan, local bantamweight, will open the card with a shot at 100 yards.

Young Sullivan knocked out Young Britt recently, and the ability of Young Sullivan is known. A hat-trick of wins is before the individual deer shooting championship will be settled tomorrow.

Accident Report Unfounded.

Waycross, Ga., July 26.—(Special) Walter Emery Loft, 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Loft, was accidentally drowned this afternoon while swimming in a mill pond near Weston, south of Dawson. His family was notified.

Details of the tragedy were not obtainable. The young man was on vacation visit to his grandparents at Weston.

Hahn-Morris Go Promises Much Action

Promoter Hume McDonald has announced that ladies will be admitted free, whether accompanied by escorts or not, at the boxing card he is holding Thursday night at the Auditorium. Admission is a ten-cent main event to a decision between Bernie Hahn, the Wheeling bantam, who is popularly known here as one of the chief exponents of the 108-pound weight in this country, and Sammy Morris, well known protege of Walk Miller, who put over the k. o. on Eddie Leonard and Barnett in recent encounters.

These two lads have agreed to a twelve-round fight on a scheduled twelve-round fight night.

The semi-windup is also a ten-round go with Kid Lucas, of Camp Gordon, and Battling Bailey, local lightweight, who will be remembered.

Wills Puts K.O. on Fulton In Fast Time

Nashua, N. H., July 26.—Harry Wills, negro heavyweight, knocked Fred Fulton out in the third round of a scheduled twelve-round fight at the Auditorium.

The knockout blow, a right uppercut, came after two minutes and thirty seconds of fighting in the third round.

Wills took the aggressive in the first round, sending rights and lefts to Fulton's head and body. Wills then hooked a left to the head and followed with a right to Fulton's stomach. Fulton still on the defensive, blocked a couple of rushes and then swung a high right to Wills' head before Wills had time to get his feet.

In the second round Wills landed a left right to the head and Fulton countered with a straight left to the face and a right to the body. Fulton found he was unable to reach his right hand to the head and followed with a right to the body.

Wills rushed his opponent at the beginning of the third round and landed rights to the jaw, following with rights and lefts to the head and body. Wills came to a half clinch and Wills shot a short right uppercut under the chin when they broke away. Wills followed with a right jolt over the heart and then followed with a right swinging uppercut to the jaw, knocking Fulton on his back in the third round.

Wills had to be counted out. He had to be helped to his corner.

Wills weighed 204 pounds and Fulton 210.

Eddie Fitzsimmons, New York lightweight, outpointed Johnny Dundee, of New York, four rounds to three.

Fitzsimmons had the better of five rounds. Dundee of three and two were even.

Thomas put up a clever battle against Britton, but was outwitted from the start. He was knocked down twice in the first round, once in the fifth and again in the tenth round when homas dropped on his face.

With twenty seconds to go, Britton stopped the bout, thereby giving Britton credit for a technical knockout.

NEW GEORGIA FLAG TO BE PRESENTED TO STATE TUESDAY

At a joint session of the senate and house of representatives held in the House of Representatives Hall, promptly at 11 o'clock this morning, the Daughters of the Confederacy, the Sons of Confederate Veterans, and the Sons of the American Revolution, all organizations that the government allows to be represented in the legislature, will present a new flag to be flown from the flagstaff of the capitol on such occasions as the governor may order.

For several years past the state has been without a flag, the old one having been beaten to pieces by wind and rain and no steps having been taken to secure a new one.

The Atlanta chapter of the U. S. C. interested itself in the matter and raised the funds to buy it. Chiefly instrumental in this was Mrs. L. D.

Clark, chairman of the flag committee.

The new flag will be borne into the chamber by John E. Boykin Jr., young son of Senator General Boykin, who has been selected to act as color bearer. Mrs. John A. Perdue, president of the local chapter of the U. S. C. will present the flag.

Dr. L. O. Brickey, pastor of the First Methodist church, will give the invocation.

Besides the Daughters of the Confederacy, and the Children of the Confederacy, who will be represented, the Sons of Confederate Veterans, Sons of Confederate Veterans, and other patriotic organizations are invited to be present.

Scanty Attendance Makes Work Light In the Legislature

Settling down to business again after a week-end vacation, the Georgia legislature representatives Monday morning succeeded in passing one general bill, a few local bills and tabling several other measures.

The only general bill that got by the legislature Monday was a measure by Mr. Whitaker of Lowndes, providing for the relief of prisoners from the state penitentiary and the abolition of the state penitentiary tax. This bill passed the house with a bare majority, receiving but few more votes than are required to make a quorum.

Several general bills were before the house were tabled, their advocates seeing that they were likely to suffer defeat because of the small attendance. Among them were a bill by the Bullock delegation to prevent the catching of break, trout, perch and other fish by means of trap lines, set lines or other methods than hook and lines during certain seasons. This bill was tabled on unanimous consent, which was requested by the authors.

The bill amending the Georgia wife-beating statute was also tabled. This action was taken on motion of the author.

Notwithstanding the fact that there is a bill on the table above, there were a number of new bills introduced at the Monday morning session.

CREDITORS' SURETY IN RECEIVER'S HANDS

Upon petition of the Creditors' Association of Atlanta, C. C. Hornbuckle was appointed temporary receiver of the Creditors' Surety company, Judge George C. Bell, in the Fulton superior court Monday morning.

It is charged in the petition that C. C. Clegg and Bryan Hornbuckle, the two principals in the Creditors' Surety company, have damaged the plaintiffs' company to the sum of $25,000, and to have received the Creditors' Association of Atlanta in business and thereby getting a number of the petitioners' customers. It is also alleged that the defendants were employed formerly by the petitioners and through this employment they succeeded in obtaining a number of the petitioners' customers and were able to study and adopt the petitioners' method of operating business.

HARDING IS TOLD OF POLISH MUDDLE

And Also of Russian Conditions—Fiscal Expert Tells Senator the United States Should Shun Foreign Tangles.

Marion, Ohio, July 25.—First-hand information on conditions in Russia and Poland was given to Senator Harding today by C. Herbert De Rose, New York fiscal expert, who recently returned from an extensive investigation of European affairs. They talked over in detail the relation of this country to European rehabilitation and the recent nominees asking many questions about conditions there.

In a statement after the conference Mr. De Rose, who came here at Senator Harding's request, said he had taken the position that this country should go slow in its foreign commitments, especially the attitude taken by the senator in their conversation.

Harding Realizes Task.

"I think Senator Harding fully realizes the importance of the task that will confront his administration," the statement continued, "and that he is anxious to equip himself with the best possible understanding of these matters."

"The fact is that an extremely grave crisis confronts Europe right now. Trotsky has proved a good deal of a factor and will be in Russia an army numbering probably 1,750,000 men. I regard it as the greatest military force in the world today. This is a good time for America to give particular attention to its own interests and as little as possible to the concerns of other nations."

Senator Harding had no other ex-

Alderman Second Ward

(Entire City Votes in Aldermanic Race)

To the Voters of Atlanta:

I am a candidate for Alderman from the Second Ward.

My opponent is Mr. Harvey Hatcher, whose past service in the City Council has been conspicuous only by his statement that he "would hire school teachers as he would buy coal," and by his persistent opposition to every effort to give merited raises to faithful city employees.

In my four years as a councilman I have devoted myself to constructive work for the city, and feel that by reason of my experience I am entitled to the promotion as Alderman.

I favor good schools and more school buildings, and shall aid in any effort to secure them.

I believe school teachers and all other city employees should be paid a salary commensurate with their qualifications and in keeping with the high cost of living.

The public-spirited citizens, and especially the women voters of Atlanta, have an opportunity now to help the cause of education and progress generally by giving me their votes in the primary on Wednesday, which I assure them in advance will be appreciated.

Very respectfully,

DR. A. H. COCHRAN.

attended conferences during the day, devoting most of his time to correspondence. He plans to spend most of the week in Atlanta, but will appear in advance a short speech to be made Saturday when the front porch campaign is opened formally at the home of a delegation from Mansfield, Ohio.

It was announced that Harry M. Daugherty, manager of Senator Harding's campaign, would act as the nominee's representative tomorrow at the notification of Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts of the vice presidential candidate.

Farmers Pleased by Harding.

In a statement made public to-night through Harding headquarters here, Henry C. Wallace, the Des Moines, Iowa, publisher of farm periodicals, declared himself greatly pleased with his talk yesterday with Senator Harding regarding farm reform.

"The farmers in the corn belt states," he said, "welcome certain things in Senator Harding's speech which they will welcome. They welcome that they would welcome a twenty-four-hour rain after a July drought. The farmers have advanced to 10 percent after having opened and remained in free supply at 8 percent. The rise in loans was coincident with reports of additional grants of loans from government funds from local institutions.

"Senator Harding intends to assure the people of the agricultural usefulness and to make certain that it will resume the relationship that it used to sustain. I am greatly impressed with his thorough knowledge of what is needed."

Archibald Blackshear Urges the Utilization of Waste Water Power

Archibald Blackshear, of Augusta, president of the Municipal League of Georgia, has addressed a communication to the need of the utilization of the waste water power of the state as a means of preventing the despoliation of industry and the suffering of the people from coal famine.

He points out that coal is now selling at $15 per ton, and that next year it will be $20 per ton. It will be impossible to obtain enough coal at any price. On April 1, the equivalent of 1,250,000 tons of coal, enough to heat every home and run every factory, cotton gin and train in Georgia, is being lost in water power, and there is no bill introduced.

The occasion of Mr. Blackshear's letter is to urge upon the members of the general assembly to enact a bill to utilize the waste water power of the state, which have already been acted upon favorably by the committee on constitutional amendments.

Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

NEGRO IS CHARGED WITH THE THEFT
OF TERMINAL MAIL

Weston Bitchie, colored mail porter at the Terminal station, Monday was held to the federal grand jury by United States Commissioner W. Collier Carter under $200 bond on charges of theft from the mail. Bitchie is represented at the preliminary hearing by W. G. Shearer, former assistant district attorney. Bitchie was arrested Sunday night at the Terminal plaza by Policeman Patrick, who testified Monday that he met the negro walking in the plaza a pair of mail bags. According to a Cincinnati concern and addressed to Miss Slater, of Brunswick, under his arm, wrapped in a mail bag. Officer Patrick said that Bitchie first told him the newspaper contained a mail bag, but after he opened it, he found it contained a mail bag. The negro said that he had found the package on the ground and later, returning it to the terminal, he was told that he had gone across the street for a drink. Officer Patrick was not satisfied with this explanation, and took the negro into custody. The government was represented at the hearing by Assistant District Attorney David Meyerhardt and Postage Inspectors Graham and H. Lindsey.

RECORD NUMBER OF OLD VETERANS
RESIDE IN HOME

The largest number of Confederate veterans of any period of the last two years is now enrolled at the Confederate Soldiers' home, according to the superintendent, Major W. E. McAllister. This number is now 100. It was thought that 20 years would suffice for the keeping of the home for the surviving veterans, as it was estimated that by that time practically all of the veterans would have passed away. A lease was signed for the property on which the home is located for a period of two years, and the time limit has nearly expired.

The property on which the home is situated belongs to the United States government. The government is expected that the present legislature will provide for a ten-year extension of the lease.

mobile dealer here, disappeared on the eve of her second trial, it was discovered today, when her attorney stated at the office of her attorney that his daughter had been gone several weeks.

A feature of the situation was brought out when the attorney announced that Martin Hunter, a youth indicted as an accomplice of Miss Moore, had also disappeared.

In a recent letter received by Miss Hunter stated he was "just sailing to Italy." Hunter's home is said to be in Indiana Harbor, Indiana.

Attorneys for the Harth family announced tonight a nation-wide search would be started to apprehend the couple.

The Harth murder was the most sensational that ever occurred here. The shooting took place September 8, last, eight miles outside the city. Harth, in dying statement, denied robbery, but maintained that the girl alleged Harth attacked her. Diamonds and money valued at several thousand dollars were on Harth's person when he died.

25 COUNTIES WORKING UNDER THE ELLIS LAW

Twenty-five counties are now working under the Ellis health law, an official of the state board of health said yesterday. The board of county to take action on the matter was Hall, where the first grand jury recommendation was secured last week. The county, however, had already the necessary two grand jury recommendations, and a second recommendation is expected soon in Jasper county. These counties, with the de la Huerta government on terms for surrender of himself and men, will start on another war against the disease. The recommendations are not accepted, it is reported here. Refugees are coming to Piedras Negras from the Sabinas valley, and the town of Villa is under martial law. The progress of the campaign of Villa's resistance is understood.

Reports reaching here say Villa is in full control of Sabinas, and following a sharp encounter with a government force in which twenty-five de la Huerta troops are believed to have been killed, sent word to the government, requesting that he must be allowed to hold out if further trouble was to be avoided.

All railroad and other communication services is said to be under Villa's control of Sabinas.

Accounts of his activities reaching here say that if his terms for surrender are not accepted the bandit leader has planned to renew warfare on a larger scale immediately.

A heavy file of messages is being sent to the government at Mexico de la Huerta government at Mexico City and Villa. It is understood, but what the latter's terms for surrendering himself are cannot be
